

Tax Deadline Extended Until May 17th

March 19, 2021

The Internal Revenue Service and the U.S. Department of Treasury have announced that the original individual tax filing deadline of April 15th, 2021 is now being pushed back to May 17th, 2021.

The deadline for corporate returns and first quarter estimated payments for corporations and individuals remain April 15th 2021. Filers will need to check their filing state due date as they may not follow the same deadline either.
